29. Edward Collier Scholarship Award
Edward Collier had a zest for life and a passion for adventure and excitement. This passion for excitement was exemplified by his extensive list of activities and achievements: drag racing, world record holder, 1967 drag racing National Champion, renowned motorcycle racer, motorcycle racing event and facility manager, builder and pilot of ultralight aircraft. This last activity cost him his life on October 12, 1998. Edward was also extremely dedicated to Connersville High School athletics, especially the wrestling program. In 1978, he helped to establish the Fayette Wrestling Council and was very active in this organization until his death. For his dedication, he was awarded the Oscar Horning Distinguished Service Award on June 3, 1998. His dedication and zest for life has motivated the Collier family to establish the Edward Collier Scholarship Award. The annual award will be presented to a Connersville High School senior, of high moral and academic character, who embodies Mr. Collier's zest for life, passion for excitement and wishes to further their education at the college level.

Preference for the award is as follows:

1. A senior who actively participated in the varsity wrestling program at Connersville High School and who wishes to further their education at the college level.
2. A senior who wishes to further their education at Franklin College of Indiana. This student must be accepted for admission to Franklin College at the time of the award.
3. The common application will be used.

30. Eta Pi Kappa Eleanor B. Moran Memorial Scholarship Award
The children of Eleanor B. Moran, Janis L. Krepp and Johnny L. Bunzendahl, honored their mother before her death, by establishing a Living Memorial Scholarship: to be presented annually in her memory. Since Eleanor was a loyal and active member of Beta Chapter of Eta Pi Kappa Sorority until her death, they decided to present the scholarship in her sorority's name. In an impressive ceremony, the sorority members gathered around her bed as they pledged to honor her scholarship and strive to continue it throughout future years. It was Eleanor's last wish to live until her 75th birthday on June 3rd and to see the first scholarship presented: however, the good Lord called her home on March 10, 1987, after a long bout with cancer. The scholarship's name was then changed to the Eleanor B. Moran Memorial Scholarship Award. ELIGIBILITY: The applicant must be a graduating high school senior, boy or girl, in the top 20% of their graduating class, who will attend an accredited college, university, business or vocational school to the completion of the freshman term. SELECTION PROCESS: The award committee will consist of members of Beta Chapter (to be named by the chapter president each year). Selection will be based on student's participation in high school and community activities, quality of their application, academic potential, and financial need. AMOUNT: The amount of the award will be $500.00. In the event that the recipient does not or cannot complete the freshman term, the award must be returned and will be awarded to the committee's second choice. ADMINISTRATION: The scholarship will be administered directly to the student upon written verification of his or her acceptance at the college of the student's choice.

31. Fayette Regional Health System Auxiliary Scholarship
Fayette Regional Health System Auxiliary will award three (3) scholarships to applicants who are graduating seniors, boy or girl, in the top 20% of their graduating class. The recipients must be pursuing a degree in the medical field from an accredited college, university or vocational school.
SELECTION PROCESS: The award committee will consist of members of FRHS Auxiliary. Selection will be based on student participation in high school and community activities, application, academic potential, citizenship, and financial need. AMOUNT: The amount of the three (3) awards will be $1,000.00 each. In the event that the recipient does not or cannot complete the freshman term, the award must be returned and will be awarded to the committee's second choice. ADMINISTRATION: A check will be mailed directly to the student upon a copy of verification of students' acceptance at the college of their choice being delivered to Fayette Regional Health System Auxiliary. The common application will be used.
32. Ella Marlatt Miller Memorial Scholarship
Mrs. Miller stated in 1921, "How wonderful it would be if the women of this community through their united efforts could help a deserving girl graduate to the fulfillment of her desire for a higher education." Mrs. Miller's idea then became a reality at that time when six local women's clubs accepted Mrs. Miller's invitation to form The Women's Educational Association of Connersville, Indiana. Since the association's inception in 1921, over 190 girls have received scholarships to aid their pursuit of higher education. Over the years, the organization's strength has been in the generosity of a large number of contributors, rather than large amount given by only a few groups or individuals. A scholarship is given by the Women's Educational Association of at least $200.00 to one or two outstanding girls in the senior class to be used to further her/their education in an accredited college or university.
33. Eta Pi Kappa General Scholarship Award
ELIGIBILITY: The applicant must be a graduating high school senior in the top 20% of their graduating class, who will attend an accredited college, university, business or vocational school to the completion of the freshman term. SELECTION PROCESS: The award committee will consist of members of Beta chapter (to be named by chapter president each year). Selection will be based on student's participation in high school and community activities, quality of their application, academic potential, and financial need. AMOUNT: The amount of the award will be determined annually, but not to exceed $500.00. In the event that the recipient does not or cannot complete the freshman term, the award must be returned and will be awarded to the committee's second choice. ADMINISTRATION: The scholarship shall be given to the student upon receipt of written verification of acceptance to the college of the student's choice. Beta chapter donates two (2) scholarships annually. The committee will award the first scholarship to a Connersville High School senior. The second shall be awarded from any applications that meet the following criteria. CRITERIA: A member of Eta Pi Kappa Beta Chapter in good standing, or a legacy (child, grandchild, great grandchild or step-family) of a member, living or deceased. If there are no applicants for the second scholarship, then both scholarships shall be given to a senior of Connersville High School. All eligibility requirements will need to be met to be considered for this scholarship.

34. Extension Homemakers - 4-H Scholarships
The Fayette County Extension Homemakers will give scholarships to outstanding seniors who are 4-H members or related to a Fayette County Extension Homemaker. The number and amounts of scholarships will be determined by the number of applications and the quality of their credentials. The common application and a separate sheet must be completed. The following requirements should be met by the applicants:
1. Must be a 4-H member or an immediate family member of an Extension Homemaker (ex. child or stepchild), and a resident of Fayette County.
 2. 4-H members applying must list number of projects completed.
 3. Must be in the top third of the senior class.
 4. Must have a letter of recommendation from 4-H leader or a letter from the President of the Home Ext. Club involved.
 5. The scholarship will be paid to the recipient upon proof of acceptance or registration to a college or university. Contact the Extension Office to receive money.
 6. The scholarship will be presented to the recipient by a representative of the Fayette County Extension Homemakers Organization.
35. Connersville Fraternal Order of Police Lodge #74

Mr. H. Wayne Huffmeier has established a Trust Fund, Heffmeier Student Assistance Trust Fund, for the general purpose of aiding in the cost incurred by a graduate of Connersville High School pursuing a Bachelor of Science or Bachelor Arts degree at any accredited institution of higher learning, regardless of its location. For the student to qualify for benefits from the Trust, they must:

1. Be a graduate of Connersville Senior High School, Connersville, Indiana
2. Have maintained a "C", or better, cumulative grade average over the course of his or her last academic year.
3. Be enrolled at or be attending as a full-time student at an accredited college in pursuit of a Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Arts degree.
4. Be classified as a freshman, sophomore, junior or senior at such college, be enrolled thereat, be in good standing thereat, and be maintaining a "B" or better grade point average.
5. Be an individual who is in financial need and who, but for the Trust Fund provisions, would have to borrow money to attend to, and obtain, such Bachelor's degree.

A recipient shall be disqualified and no longer a recipient if he or she, for any reason, ceases to meet any of the above criteria. No recipient may qualify for more than eight (8) semesters. The Trust assistance may be used to aid with the recipient's cost of tuition and/or room and board and shall be paid directly to the institution to the credit of the recipient.

96. James E. Colter Sports Memorial Scholarship

James D. Colter is pleased to announce the re-introduction of the James E. Colter Sports Memorial Scholarship; in the amount of three hundred dollars, ($300.00), to be presented annually to a qualified senior of Connersville High School in Connersville, Indiana.

During the years of participation in many sports by James E. Colter and subsequent generations of his family, a love of sports was always a very important aspect of family life. James E. Colter and his family not only enjoyed being part of a team and promoting a winning attitude, but were supportive of all family members who aspired to be involved in sports and enjoyed the comradery of being part of a team, and playing with winning attitudes on and off the court.

To be considered for this scholarship, a student must have completed at least one year in a sport of his/her choice at Connersville Senior High School and maintained a 2.0 grade point average, (GPA) during that year of participation in that sport. The qualified applicant must have also submitted a 300 word essay that exemplifies what competing in sports has meant to their life growing up and what it will mean in preparation for their life in the future.

To submit an application with an essay attached to the James E. Colter Sports Memorial Scholarship selection committee, simply follow the instructions of the Guidance Department application process as outlined by Ms. Jamie Hamm, Guidance Coordinator and her staff.

97. The Darryll Morehead Jr. Memorial Scholarship

Darryll Lee Morehead, Jr. was a 1992 graduate of Connersville High School and gifted electrician who believed strongly in hands-on learning experiences like those offered through the Whitewater Career Center. To fill employment needs of the 21st century, students studying in fields such as construction, culinary arts, electricity, and welding learn to meet and overcome challenges through experiential learning. Preference will be given to students who will be continuing their education at a trade/technical school of their choice. The common application will be used to apply.

98. Eastview PTO Scholarship

Eastview PTO will award two scholarships to former Eastview students who are graduating from Connersville High School and wish to further their education beyond the high school years. The selection criteria will include, but not be limited to, academic achievement, financial need, and citizenship. The recipients must have attended Eastview at least four years. Application will be made using the common scholarship application form provided by Connersville High School. It is the intent of the Eastview PTO to make these scholarships for $ 250.00 each. The Eastview PTO Scholarship Selection Committee, comprised of the principal, a teacher, and parent officer of the PTO, will review all applications and select the recipients. The scholarships will be paid directly to the recipients upon presenting to the principal proof of acceptance and registration at a post-secondary institution.
